What's in the Visits Tab?

Jay-Ileen (Ai) - 2023-08-13 - Getting to Know Your Dashboard

When you are on the call with your patient or when you are viewing the Visit page of a patient, you will find the Visits tab. Instead of going to the Patients tab, this is a shortcut to the patient's upcoming visits and past visits.

The screenshot shows the VSee Clinic interface. The 'Visits' tab is highlighted with a red box. The 'Upcoming Visits' section shows a table with one entry:

Visit Time	Type	Provider	Visit Status	Amount	Action
12/19/2022 05:50 PM ID: 933514853	Video	Dr. Sarah Miller, M.D.	In Progress (Patient in waiting room)	USD 0	View

The 'Past Visits' section is empty.

You can view the details of the upcoming scheduled appointments of the patient.

The 'Past Visits' section is empty.

You can also view the details of the patient's past visits - whether it's completed, missed, aborted, or canceled.

The screenshot shows the VSee Clinic interface for a patient named Aileen White. The left sidebar contains a video call window with a large orange circle containing the initials 'AW'. The main content area displays the patient's profile and a 'Visits' tab. A table titled 'Past Visits' is visible, with a red box highlighting the 'Past Visits' header and another red dashed box highlighting the scrollbar on the right side of the table.

Visit Time	Visit Info	Visit Type	Provider	Visit Status	Amount
