New Resource: VSee Product Versions and Support Timelines

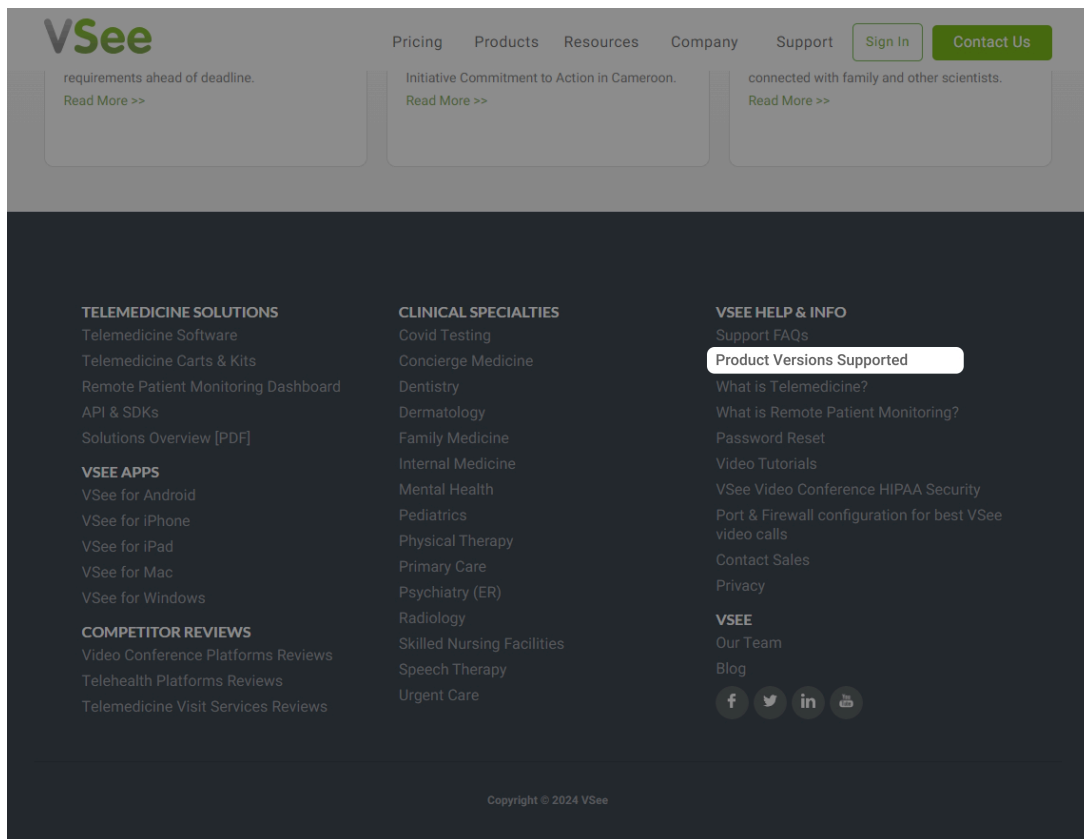

To help you better manage your software assets, we have posted a new resource page dedicated to listing our Product Versions and Support Timelines. We recommend bookmarking and checking this page regularly to stay informed of our anticipated product end-of-support windows and to plan updates accordingly to avoid any disruptions in service.

On this new resource page, you will find:

- A comprehensive list of product versions and their respective end-of-support dates.
- Important notes about transitioning to supported versions.
- Links to resources for upgrading your systems.

How can I find the VSee Product Support Timeline page?
